DECEMBER

1900

1. The first of the month was a very cold day, with a heavy frost. The wind was from the north, and the snow was driven in great drifts.
The temperature was below zero, and the ground was frozen. The trees were covered with ice, and the fountains were frozen.
The people were dressed in heavy coats, and the streets were covered with snow. The day was very pleasant, and the people enjoyed the winter weather.

. . . PREFACE . . .

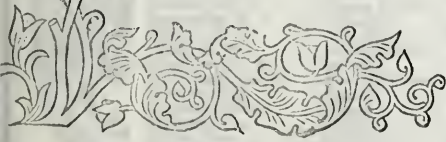

HIS VOLUME, being the first of its kind ever published, goes forth to our patrons the results of months of arduous, unremitting and conscientious labor. None so well know as those who have been associated with us the almost insurmountable difficulties to be met with in the preparation of a work of this character. Since the inauguration of the enterprise, a large force has been employed in gathering material. In gathering from these numerous sources, both for the Directory and Biographical departments, the conflicting statements, the discrepancies and the fallible and incomplete nature of public opinion, caused by numerous swindlers in the past, have made it quite a difficult task to secure the many thousands of names represented in this book. Again, members of the same families disagree as to the spelling of the family name, contradict each other's statements as to the dates of birth, of settlement, nativity and other matters of fact. In this entangled condition, we have given preference to the preponderance of authority, and while we acknowledge the existence of errors and our inability to furnish a perfect Encyclopedic Directory, we claim to have come up to the standard of our promises, and given as accurate a work as the nature of the surroundings would permit. * * * * *

Whatever may be the verdict of those who do not and will not comprehend the difficulties to be met with, we feel assured that all just and thoughtful people will appreciate our efforts, and recognize the importance of the undertaking and the great public benefit that has been accomplished in preserving the valuable historical matter of the county and biographies of many of its citizens, as well as numerous illustrations, half-tones, etc. * * * * *

To those who have given us their support and encouragement, we acknowledge our gratitude, and can assure them that as years go by the book will grow in value as a repository, not only of pleasing reading matter, but of treasured information of the past that will become an enduring monument. * * * * *

In the year 1868 the school trustees of the town of Brazil decided to erect a new building for the accommodation of the pupils of the rapidly growing town. Plans and specifications were drawn up for the Meridian street building, which was finished in the year 1870, at a cost of something over twenty thousand dollars.

The gentlemen constituting the Board of Trustees at that time were Dr. W. H. Gifford, J. W. Kellar and H. Wheeler. Meridian street building is a monument to the sagacity of these gentlemen. The venerable Dr. Gifford and J. W. Kellar died, honored and respected citizens of our city. H. Wheeler is now a retired business man, living in Terre Haute. Mr. Wheeler enjoys the distinction of being a public-spirited, intelligent gentleman.

The school trustees employed the following teachers for the school year beginning in October, 1870: A. Odell, principal, and C. P. Eppert, Mrs. A. D. Hawkins, Mattie Mercer, Rachel Wheeler and E. J. Thompson as assistant teachers.

Prof. Odell's management of the schools seemed to be unsatisfactory to the Board of Trustees, and he resigned in the following February. Prof. Odell was succeeded by Prof. E. R. Smith, who served the remainder of the year and the succeeding year very acceptably. Mr. Smith retired from the teacher's profession, and has been for years a prominent physician in the city of Chicago. Prof. Smith was strong, mentally and physically. His giant frame and military bearing had a depressing effect on the average Brazil boy at that time. On one occasion Mr. Smith was assaulted by a pugilistic patron whose son had been punished in school. The Professor administered a good flogging to the aforesaid pugilist, much to the gratification of a crowd of bystanders. A small fine was imposed upon Mr. Smith, which was promptly paid by the Board. It is needless to say that the Superintendent commanded the respect of all the better class of people.

Mr. C. P. Eppert was promoted to the superintendency after the retirement of Prof. Smith, and served continuously till the year 1877, except the school year 1874 and 1875. Prof. M. S. Wilkinson was selected for that year. Prof. Eppert labored under the disadvantage of disease, contracted in Andersonville prison. He secured a position in the pension department, which he filled very honorably till the time of his death, a few years ago. He was prominent in the G. A. R., I. O. O. F., and F. and A. M.

September 17, 1877, Superintendent John C. Gregg, the present incumbent, took charge of the schools. It was then that the preparation for the establishment of a high school was begun. The difficulties were many, and the progress was slow, so it was not until 1885 that the first class was graduated, consisting of one pupil, Mrs. Will M. Zeller, then Miss Mary Herr. Meanwhile, Mr. A. D. Hurst had succeeded Superintendent Gregg in 1882, and he in turn was displaced the next year by Superintendent Gregg, who was followed by Mr. J. M. Brown in 1884, and the next year, 1885, Superintendent Gregg was again restored to the place, which he still occupies. Ever since 1870 the rapid growth of the city, and the increase in the number of pupils, have kept the School Board at their wits' end to provide sufficient room and teachers. The following buildings were erected: Lambert street Building, four rooms, in 1875; Central Building, two rooms, was purchased in 1883; Jackson Street Building, four rooms, in 1888; Pinckley Street Building, four rooms, in 1881, and two rooms each were added to the Jackson Street and Lambert Street Buildings in 1893, making at present five buildings and twenty-four rooms and teachers. The enrollment increased in the same time from 650 in 1877 to 1,560 in 1896. The following prominent citizens have been members of the School Board since 1877: W. R. Torbert, Eli Hendrix, Major W. W. Carter, John Richardson, W. P. Richardson, Hon. E. S. Holliday, John Stewart, A. M. Daniels, A. F. Stonehart, Ex-Mayor Simon Herr, Wm. Leavitt, Wm. Spears, E. W. Smith, and the present Board—D. W. J. Wolf, Pres.; P. T. Wimney, Sec.; Hon. J. W. Bratton, Treas.

Superintendent John C. Gregg has held the position of Superintendent of the Brazil City Schools for 17 years. When he took charge in September, 1877, there was in all nine teachers employed, and, during the year 650 pupils enrolled. Now there are 26 teachers and almost 1,600 pupils in the schools. To his energy and careful work are largely due the establishment and success of the High School, which now number nearly 100 pupils, and has sent out over 150 graduates. Superintendent Gregg was born in Greene County, Ohio, March 7, 1844. His grandfather was a revolutionary soldier, serving under Washington from the battle of Long Island till the surrender at Yorktown, suffering the dreadful privations of the winters at Valley Forge and Morristown. He lived on his father's farm until September, 1862, when he entered the Sophomore class in Monmouth (Ill.) College. The next year he was a student in Miami University at Oxford, Ohio, where he remained till May, 1864, when he enlisted in Company I 167th O. N. G., and served in the army till September of the same year. He then resumed his studies at Monmouth College, where he graduated June 25, 1865. He began teaching the same fall, and has taught continuously up to the present, with the exception of two years. On Christmas, 1867, he was married to Miss Susan A. Welty, of Oxford, O., and made his home at Richland, Ind., where he taught the academy for three years and a half. He then taught at Milroy and Tipton, three years each, and in 1877 took charge of the Brazil school. His family consists of Dr. J. W. Gregg, Longmont, Colo., John C. Gregg, jr., machinist, of Brazil, Willie B. Gregg, deceased in 1885, and his two daughters, Lillie and Nellie, who still live with their parents.

John Goodin was born July 25, 1829, near the town of Felicity, Clearmont County, Ohio, and was raised and received his education in Georgetown the county seat of Brown County, Ohio. He was a schoolmate of President Grant, and his brothers and sisters, and Colonel Kautz, the man who captured John A. Morgan in the wind-up of his raids. He remained with his parents until he was 18 years old and then he served an apprenticeship to the building trade partly in Clearmont and finished in Brown County, Ohio.

Afterwards he served a term learning the art of spiral stair building under the instructions of John Henry Kolker, the man who put the first staircase in the Burnett House, Cincinnati, Ohio. He was married to Miss Minnie Jane Reed in 1852. She was the mother of three children; two are dead and one daughter is living, the wife of Ransom Woods, who resides on a farm one mile from the city of Brazil, Ind. He moved to Brazil in 1862, and lost by death his first wife July 20, 1863; he was remarried February 13, 1868 to Miss Elizabeth Howard. Four children is the result of this union—two sons and two daughters. One son and one daughter are dead, and the wife and one son and one daughter are living. About twenty-eight years ago he was master mechanic on the additions put to the old union depot, Indianapolis. In 1854-55 he was a correspondent of Robert Riddell, of Philadelphia, the great authority on stair building. He took on himself the profession of an architect in 1870, and still continues to do some business in this line. He has a patent on putting in window and door casings so as to conceal the nails.

in the drug business in 1886 at Staunton, Ind., and continued therein until 1889. Dr. Veach graduated from the Central Normal College at Ladoga, Ind., in 1885. In 1889 he entered the Medical College of Indiana, graduating therefrom in 1891, since which time he has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine. He married Miss Mattie N. Wardlaw, December 30, 1891. Two children, boys, have been born to them—Lester W. and Albert C., February 8, 1893, and June 15, 1894, respectively. On December 30, 1891, Dr. Veach was appointed Township Trustee, which office he held three years. He is at present a member of the U. S. Pension Examining Board at Brazil, Ind. He is a member of the F. & A. M., I. O. O. F., and I. O. R. M., also of the County and State Medical Societies.

The Wilkins Bros., managers and proprietors of the City Gallery, No. 410 West Main street. Theodore Wilkins, manager, was born in Bath, England, March 21, 1871; came to America 1887. Albert, born in Bath, England, June, 1868, and Luther, also born at the above named city, 1866, came to America, 1887. The Wilkins Bros. have the most beautifully arranged gallery in the city of Brazil, prepared to do all kinds of inside and outside work. In their studio are to be found birds, parrots and various musical instruments that are calculated to make each and all pleasantly entertained while waiting. Their studio being the only one in the city on the ground floor makes it more convenient than any other gallery in the city; it also being located in the most beautiful part of the city makes it convenient to solicit competition. In fact, they dictate, others imitate. They lead and others follow. Parties desiring to have work done or see crayons or cabinets of their friends in Clay County will do well to call at the City Gallery, for the greatest assortment of prominent faces are to be seen there. It is second to none in the state of Indiana.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—The First Presbyterian Church of Brazil was organized in 1858, at which time a society of New School Presbyterians was constituted by Revs. J. G. Wilson and Ransom Hawley, who were appointed by the Greencastle Presbytery for that purpose. The society was composed of R. N. Westfall and wife, John Wallace and wife, Abraham Chambers, John Hendrix, Jr., Hannah D. Morrow, and Joanna Hendrix. The same year lot No. 6, Brackney's addition, was purchased, and a plain but substantial house of worship erected. The trustees were Dr. A. W. Knight, John Hendrix, Jr., and R. N. Westfall. Meanwhile a society of Old School Presbyterians was organized about this time, and the brick edifice on the corner of Jackson and Franklin streets was erected. Rev. N. S. Palmer was the first pastor, and under his ministry the church was built. The two societies were united in 1865. Rev. J. B. Crow, of Crawfordsville, and H. L. Dickerson, of Greencastle Presbyteries, being the commissioners. S. Strachan and Thomas Desart were constituted elders of the newly organized society. The present edifice was erected in 1875-77, at a cost of $7,000, but it has received important additions since. It was dedicated by Rev. Joseph Tuttle, D. D. Rev. J. H. Meter was then pastor. The trustees were James G. Niblock, J. G. Bryson, W. H. Zimmerman and James Lodge. The chapel was built in 1882, at a cost of over $1,000. The society now numbers about 275. The pastor is Rev. Wm. J. Frazer. The trustees are W. H. Zimmerman, J. G. Bryson, Dudley W. Brattin and Wm. W. Moore; the elders, Charles B. Ross, John Hendrix, John C. Gregg, Silas D. Black and William Torrance; the deacons, William C. Hall, S. H. Lybber, Elias T. Davis, Hugh Stevenson, Joseph Wardlaw and Samuel George Ralston. The following ministers have served the church: Ransom Hawley, N. S. Palmer, Francis M. Symmes, M. A. Jewett, J. Hawks, Henry S. Little, S. B. Taggart, George E. Lamb, J. H. Meter, J. D. Jones, E. W. Fisk, D. D. T. C. Stewart and Wm. J. Frazer. For no extended period has the society been without a regularly installed pastor, although for some time without a house of worship. When the brick house was burned in 1871, Hendrix Hall was rented, and was occupied until the completion of the new building in 1877. The church has several departments of work, such as the Sunday School, the Endeavor Society and the missionary societies, and all are flourishing. CHURCH OF CHRIST—In April, 1877, the Church of Christ was organized in the City of Brazil. Eleven persons met in Wheeler's Hall and effected an organization. Elder G. L. Harney was the first pastor. He was succeeded by Elder Abram Boor. This church has experienced a slow but permanent and substantial growth. The pastors in addition to the above named, were: W. A. Sellers, —Finley, J. M. Brown, Neal S. McCallam, C. M. Shattuck, John M. Goodwin, A. F. Armstrong, M. W. Yocum, B. L. Allen, P. H. Robinson, J. P. Davis, and the present Elder John Friend. In 1880 and 1881 the society erected a fine brick church, which cost three thousand dollars, and was dedicated September 4, 1881, by Elder A. W. Gilbert, of Rushville, Ind. The present membership is 304. The church, under the able ministry of Elder John Friend, is in a prosperous condition. In connection with the church work, there is a flourishing Sunday School, Sister's Society and Young People's Society of Christian Endeavors. This church is exerting a wonderful influence for the moral and religious welfare of the city. A. J. Kidd and W. D. McCullough are and have been elders of this church since its organization. The trustees are W. D. McCullough, A. J. Kidd and John A. Krider. The two former have been trustees since the organization of the congregation. The deacons are: Sylvester Easter, P. L. Everheart, George W. Geren, Andrew Spears and John A. Krider. Many who have been members of this church have passed away. "Their labors are ended; their works do follow them." Their spirits await the resurrection morn, when they shall again reanimate the bodies that have returned to mother earth, which bodies shall be changed, immortalized, fashioned after the glorious body of Christ, the Son of the living God; with Him they shall dwell throughout the ceaseless ages of eternity.

The United Brethren in Christ was organized in 1879 in the city of Brazil by Rev. Henry Johns, of Upper Wabash conference, and Rev. Thomas Burk, of Corey, Ind., who for many years was a resident of Brazil. For several years they worshipped in the old Baptist church, near the court house, the moving to the Congregational church near the Christian church, which they occupied for a few years. Finally, in 1888, the succeeded in building a beautiful church in the south part of town, which was dedicated by Bishop Weaver, in the fall of 1888. The church borrowed five hundred dollars from the Church Erection society, which amount was collected and paid by the present pastor, Rev. E. J. Jenkins, which leaves the church free of all indebtedness, valued at sixteen hundred and fifty dollars. The membership, ninety-five, with a Sunday school of over one hundred in attendance and good Young People's society.

The following persons have served as pastors: Rev. Henry Johns, 1879; Rev. J. F. Miller, 1880; Rev. R. B. Van Allen, 1881 to 1884; Rev. E. J. Jenkins, 1885 and 1886; Rev. E. P. Thorne, 1887; Rev. Henry Johns, 1888; Rev. F. J. Penny, 1889; Rev. Wm. Vail, 1890-91; Rev. G. T. Stump, 1892; Rev. R. M. Van Allen, 1893, 1894 and 1895, and Rev. E. J. Jenkins 1896. Many of the pastors have enjoyed extensive revivals, and many members have gone from here to other churches. The church has a brighter future before it than ever before. E. J. Jenkins, pastor; James Anderson, class leader; Newton Helton, superintendent Sunday school. Trustees, Samuel Arbuckle, Scott Carpenter, Newton Helton, William Prentice and Alex. Scott.

The First M. E. church of Brazil has had regular services since the year 1834. The original church, of which "Hendrix Chapel" is the successor was organized at the residence of Mr. James Hull, near the corner of Franklin and Main streets. Mr. James Rardin was the first class leader. Revs. Cornelius Swank and Thomas Bartlett were the preachers and Edward R. Ames of James Rardin and wife, James Hull, wife and daughter, J. Thorpe are the presiding elder. Dr. Ames was elected a bishop in 1852, and came to be known as the great statesman of Methodism. The first society was composed of James Rardin and wife, James Hull, wife and daughter, J. Thorpe and wife, Benjamin Hedges and Samuel Butts. The society continued so meeting for several years at the home of Mr. Hull. For a few years the meeting place was a hewed log school house east of Mr. Hull's residence on the same street. At an early day in the history of the church, Mr. Owen Thompson moved from Harmony and founded the town of Brazil, and became a leading member of the church. Mr. Thorpe erected a double log house on the southwest corner of what is now Main and Meridian streets. The congregation worshipped in this house with Mr. Thorpe till, through his generosity mainly, a log building was erected on the corner of what is now Church and Walnut streets, which became at once church, school house and town hall, erected 1844, and the historian says the total cash outlay was only four dollars and forty cents—for nails and glass. This house was in advance of the times, for there was no town to use the hall, only a few children to go to school, and only a small society to worship in it as a church. A frame church was built in 1857 and 1858, where the present church stands, at a cost of about fifteen hundred dollars. This building served the society for twenty years, when the present Hendrix chapel was built at a cost of twelve thousand dollars, and dedicated January 13, 1878, Bishop Thomas Bowman having charge of the dedication services. Epworth Chapel, under the charge of Rev. W. N. Dunn, is in the eastern part of town, and Bethel, under the care of Rev. Mr. Dexter, in the southeast part of town, known as Hadleytown. There are at least one thousand Methodists living in Brazil at the present time. The present building is named in honor of Eli Hendrix, one of the old and influential citizens and business men of the city.

The Sunday school has had much to do with the prosperity and growth of the church in this community. Under the leadership of such men as Eli Hendrix, Thomas Henderson, C. E. Wilder and B. F. Kruzan, the church has had great prosperity. Hon. George A. Byrd is the present superintendent, and with his careful and vigilant management the school was never more prosperous. There are about fourteen officers and fifty teachers, and one thousand pupils connected with the school.

Rev. W. P. McKinsey is the present pastor of the church and school.

John M. Rawley was born in Van Buren township, this county, on April 6, 1862. During his boyhood he worked on his father's farm in the summer and attended the district school during the winter months. In 1883 he entered the Central Normal College and fitted himself for the profession of teaching. After completing the course of study in the Normal College he began teaching in Clay county where he soon attained rank as one of the best in the county. After attending a law school in 1890 he began the practice of law at Brazil, forming a partnership with Thomas W. Hutchinson. This firm have now a splendid law practice which is due to hard study and close attention to business entrusted to their care. Mr. Rawley was deputy prosecuting attorney for three years, and is now a candidate for prosecuting attorney of this judicial district on the democratic ticket.

J. W. Evans was born in Annapolis, Ind., June 7, 1862. His father died when our subject was three years old, leaving a family of five boys and their mother with but little to live on, which necessitated each of the boys "looking out for himself." At the age of eleven years J. W. Evans began working, supporting himself and assisting a younger brother. When fifteen years old he wanted to learn music, but his mother's objection on account of poverty was an obstacle. Young Evans then left home, and having secured an old cornet began practicing, an old-time Ryan instruction book being his teacher. Sufficient progress was made to enable him to organize a band.

and he met with such success in instructing the members of the band that his ability as a cornet player and teacher was recognized by other bands, from whom he received offers at good pay to instruct them. Mr. Evans continued teaching until his mother persuaded him to begin learning a trade. At eighteen years of age he began learning blacksmithing. When he had about finished his apprenticeship he was severely hurt by a horse, which caused him to be confined to his bed for some time and ended his career as a blacksmith. Mr. Evans then returned to his favorite occupation of teaching bands and selling musical instruments. In 1884 he located in Terre Haute and in 1886 became a member of the Ringgold band. In 1887 Mr. Evans was married. He accepted a position as clerk in the Baldwin music store in 1888 and in 1890 went "on the road" for the same company. His untiring energy and great success as a clerk and traveling salesman were rewarded in 1893 when the Baldwin company sent him to Brazil to open a music store, having selected Mr. Evans over a number of applicants for the position and without his knowledge of a vacancy existing. That this compliment to Mr. Evans has been worthily bestowed is attested by the fact that he has made a success of the Brazil part of the Baldwin company's business, especially when it is recalled that he was sent here but a short time previous to the coming on of the panic. Mr. Evans is a wide-awake, enterprising and pushing business man, and with him there is no such word as fail.

The editor advocates and believes these principles will never die so long as a true devotee of liberty lives. When the tides of ocean cease to ebb and flow, when the winds of heaven are hushed into perpetual silence, when the clouds no longer thunder, when earth's electric bolts are no longer felt nor heard, when her eternal fires go out, then, and not before, will these principles cease to animate and move the liberty loving people of this country.

John C. Moss was born October 15, 1843, on the farm near Ashboro. His parents, Jacob H. Moss and Zorada J. Moss, migrated from Kentucky at a very early day and were among the first settlers of the county. At the breaking out of the rebellion, in 1861, at the age of seventeen years, he enlisted in the 12th Illinois volunteers, for the three months' service. In September, 1861, he re-enlisted in Company G, 43d Indiana, participated in the battles and skirmishes of his regiment, having been wounded while ascending White river, Ark., took a prominent part in the battle of Mark Mills, in which twenty-three of his company were killed and wounded, and held a prisoner six months at Camp Ford, Tyler, Texas, from which he made his escape and was forty-three days in reaching the Federal lines at Little Rock, during all of which time he subsisted on acorns and grapes. December 14, 1864, he was discharged from the service. After returning home he attended college for a term at Westfield, Ills.

July 3, 1896, he married Melissa C. Buckkallaw, a student of the state university, Bloomington. In the spring of 1870 he located on the farm adjoining Ashboro, which he now owns, and, by economy and thrift, has provided for the comfort of his family one of the finest rural homes in the county. There are five children in the family—four daughters and a son—namely: Quincey, Quenet, Yonnie, Zorada, Neoma and John C., Jr. In religion Mr. Moss holds to no sect nor creed, accepting only the Golden Rule as his ground of faith and duty. In politics he is a Populist and a leader in his party. Being of positive character and a strong and fearless advocate of what he believes to be right in politics and morals, he occupies a prominent position in society.

Rufus L. Kennedy was born in Center Point in 1847; worked on his father's farm and mill and attended common schools until July, 1862. Volunteered in Union army. Upon his discharge September, 1865, went to New Orleans, La., and engaged in business. On account of failing health returned to Center Point in the spring of 1866. Graduated from Center Point Normal school; attended college a short time. Taught the Center Point school in 1868 and 1869. Read law with Carter & Coffey from 1868 to 1874; was admitted to the Clay county bar; never practiced. Always having a love for agriculture, he engaged extensively in general farming; has also been interested in the general merchandise and milling business. Mr. Kennedy is an all-round successful business man, and a close student. He has one of the best libraries in the county. Mr. Kennedy is an active Republican, but would never accept the nomination for an office. Mr. Kennedy was married in 1874 to the only daughter of Rev. W. M. Givens; has three children, who now are at school. Mr. Kennedy has always been an active worker in the Sabbath school, was president of the Clay county Sunday school union for two years. He is generous to a fault, foremost in every enterprise that will elevate and better the conditions of the community in which he lives. Mr. Kennedy is now living happily with his family in his elegant home adjoining Center Point.

United Brethren Church of Center Point was organized as early as 1843. Worshipped in a log house until about 1854, when they built a frame church, at a cost of $1,000. In 1876 a second house of worship was erected in the western part of town, with a seating capacity of 500 persons. Including parsonage the entire property represents a capital of $3,500. The church has 200 members. It was largely through the influence of Mrs. M. H. Kennedy that this church was built and maintained. Much of the high moral and religious sentiment of this community is due to this church, as it was the first in the community, and always progressive. Rev. W. M. Givens has been resident minister for thirty-six years. Rev. D. Spyker is the present pastor. Rufus L. Kennedy, N. A. Gibbons, D. W. Hays, Calvin Presnell, John L. Williams, trustees.

The subject of this sketch, Mr. George O. Miller, was born in Cedar county, Mo., October 26, 1848. When quite young his father emigrated to Indiana and settled in the flat woods of Owen county, near Spencer, and became one of the pioneer teachers of that county. Young Miller received only a limited education, and at the age of twelve years began as an apprentice in the old stone water mill located at Eel River falls, near Cataract, Ind., to learn the millers' trade. Young Miller met with many disappointments and discouragements, but, unlike many boys of that age, possessed of a strong will power and a firm determination to accomplish his end, he kept pressing on, applying himself very closely, receiving for his labors the magnificent sum of one dollar per week and boarded at home. He worked four years at Burr milling, and in 1884 first began his career in a roller mill. Since that time Mr. Miller has been prominently connected with some of the best mills in the state, and has had a varied experience in the west and southwest. He was married October 31, 1893, to Miss Mildred B. Glunt, of Wichita, Kan., the young couple coming to Indiana, where they have since remained. He now has charge as head miller, of L. C. Kennedy's mill at Center Point, Ind., which position he has occupied for the past two years. Mr. Miller, by his steady, sober habits and careful application to business, has gained for himself a place in the foremost ranks of the practical millers of the day.

Clay County Infirmary.—Clay county has an excellent poor farm that may be said to be self-sustaining, but needs a new and modern infirmary. Notwithstanding many improvements have been made, much remains to be accomplished to make this institution all that it should be. The present infirmary is often overcrowded, having at this time some forty men, women and children as inmates, among them two pronounced as incurably insane. Under the excellent management of William H. McCullough as superintendent, the farm and infirmary have been conducted to the evident satisfaction of all the people of the county. The farm consists of a total of two hundred and forty-nine acres, of which one hundred and fifty-eight acres were purchased from the John Steed estate, forty acres from James and Smith lived that occupation, as trapper, driver, miner and in various other capacities, continuously, for more than thirteen (13) years. From 1881 until 1891 his time was divided between going to school, working in the mines, and teaching school. In 1891, in connection with John M. Rawley, he opened a law office in Brazil, Ind., in Zeller & Riddell's bank building, in which building they still have their office.

His early education consisted of a part of two or three terms in the public schools. In 1873 his father was killed in a mine casualty, leaving upon his brother and himself the care of the family, making any further attendance at school impossible. In 1881, having saved up some money, he attended a term at the Staunton public schools, working in the mines on Saturdays. During this term, his teacher, M. Markle, inspired him with the desire for more education, and the resolution to have it. In March, 1883, he entered the Central Indiana Normal school, and acted as janitor for the buildings, to help pay his way. He began teaching in the fall of this year, and taught in all six terms, the last two of which he was principal of the Staunton schools. It was his custom to teach during the winter months. After his school was out he would attend school until his money was exhausted, then he would return home and work in the mines until the schools commenced. In 1886 he graduated from the teachers' course in the Central Indiana Normal school with high honors and was subsequently chosen alumnus speaker for his class. In 1888, after pursuing a four years' course of study, he passed the examination of the Indiana Teachers' Reading circle, and was awarded a diploma. In 1889 he was admitted to the bar of the Clay circuit court, to practice law. In 1890 he graduated from the law department of the university of Michigan, and in the same year was admitted to the bar of the supreme court of Indiana. In 1894 he was appointed attorney for the city of Brazil, which position he now holds.
